

5 - Training & Development

The Junior League offers a wide range of training opportunities including those led by our Board or Sustaining members, trainings held at General Membership Meetings. Other training opportunities include access to AJLI weekly webinars, online training, and annual meetings as well as statewide training hosted by Ohio Leagues.

All members are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities presented throughout the Junior League. If you are interested in attending an AJLI Conference, please speak with your Council VP.

Training and Development Objectives:

- Empower women to be transformational and empathetic leaders who set bold goals
- Provide opportunities to create positive change by learning first hand from our League and from our community
- Assess members' needs through annual membership compact and determine placement where both the League and the member can benefit

Examples of Training Opportunities:

- Experiential Training - gained through volunteer opportunities (i.e. project management, organization, etc.)
- Board training (i.e. how to run/plan meetings, Robert's Rules of Order, etc.)
- In-meeting trainings (i.e. GMMs, external speakers, etc.)
- Leadership Day training - Typically held in the summer and winter within our League
- CODE Day (Connect Ohio Develop Educate) - Training that is hosted by one of the eight Junior League's in Ohio to collaborate with other League's, learn best practices, and share new ideas. The CODE Day location changes each year; information will be shared with members as it becomes available.
- AJLI Online Trainings (<https://www.ajli.org/?nd=onlinehome>)
 - Learning Portal
 - Webinar Wednesdays (Live and archived for On-demand viewing)
 - Self Paced Courses
- ODI training (Organizational Development Institute) - training held with other Leagues around the world to share best practices
